Complainant states that he is a Milwaukee County District Attorney Investigator and bases his complaint upon the sources of information identified in the paragraphs below.

A. AUTHORIZATION OF DOE JUDGE

This investigation was conducted under the auspices of an ongoing Milwaukee County John Doe investigation, Milwaukee County Case No. 10JD000007. The Honorable Neal Nettesheim presides over this John Doe proceeding. The John Doe is subject to a Secrecy Order. To the extent that the John Doe investigation relates to Darlene Wink, former County Executive Scott Walker and such other individuals as are named in this complaint, Judge Nettesheim has authorized the release of information necessary for the prosecution of this criminal matter.

B. IDENTIFICATION OF RELEVANT PARTIES

For purposes of this complaint, the following persons are identified in alphabetical order and described by role as it relates to this criminal complaint.

Dieck, Rose Ann. Rose Ann Dieck was the membership chairperson for the Republican Party of Milwaukee County. She also served as the chair of the Southwest Suburban branch of the Republican Party of Milwaukee County (RPMC).

Evenson, Tom. Mr. Evenson was a field representative with the campaign committee known as the Friends of Scott Walker.

RPMC. This acronym identifies the Republican Party of Milwaukee County (RPMC).

Ripka, Herb. Mr. Ripka (referred to as "Herb" in a number of the Wink e-mails set forth below) was the Secretary of the Republican Party of Milwaukee County. Mr. Ripka was responsible for issues related to the RPMC web site and RPMC mass e-mail notifications.

Russell, Timothy D. Mr. Russell was the Deputy Chief of Staff in the Office of the County Executive at times relevant to this complaint prior to March 2010. In March 2010, he was given the position of Housing Director for the Department of Health and Human Services. Mr. Russell also served as the Treasurer for the Republican Party of Milwaukee County.

Walker, Scott K. Mr. Walker, the current Governor of the State of Wisconsin, was at all times relevant to this criminal complaint the County Executive of Milwaukee County. Mr. Walker was also a candidate for Governor, and he was the candidate supported by the campaign committee known as the Friends of Scott Walker.

Wink, Darlene. Ms. Wink was an employee responsible for Constituent Services in the Office of the Milwaukee County Executive. She was the First Vice Chairperson of the Republican Party of Milwaukee County.

C. VENUE AND JURISDICTION

Based upon a review of Ms. Wink's personnel file which was produced pursuant to a John Doe subpoena by Candace Richards of the Department of Human Resources of Milwaukee County, Ms. Wink resided at 3876 East Holmes Avenue, Cudahy, Wisconsin at all times relevant to this complaint.

The Human Resources records reflect that Ms. Wink was employed as an Executive Assistant in the Office of the County Executive for the period of May 30, 2002 to May 14, 2010. Wink worked on Constituent Services issues.

The Office of the County Executive is located in the Milwaukee County Courthouse at 901 North 9th Street, City of Milwaukee, State of Wisconsin.

Milwaukee County is a political subdivision of the State of Wisconsin.

D. STATUTES AND RULES APPLICABLE TO MILWAUKEE COUNTY EMPLOYEE CONDUCT

Wisconsin Statutes Section 11.36(4) provides:

No person may enter or remain in any building, office or room occupied for any purpose by . . . any political subdivision [of the State] . . . or send or direct a letter or other notice thereto for the purpose of requesting or collecting a contribution.

Wisconsin Statutes Section 11.36(2) provides:

No person may solicit or receive from any officer or employee of a political subdivision of this state any contribution or service for any political purpose during established hours of employment or while the officer or employee is engaged in his or her official duties.

E. THE RECORDS OF THE CERIDIAN TIMEKEEPING SYSTEM FOR MILWAUKEE COUNTY DOCUMENT WHEN DARLENE WINK WAS WORKING AS AN EMPLOYEE AND WHEN SHE CLAIMED OFF-TIME

I am familiar with a Milwaukee County timekeeping system known as the "Ceridian" system. In the course of this John Doe investigation, subpoenas were served upon Milwaukee County for records relating to the time reporting of Darlene Wink. These records reflect Wink's off-time due to vacation, personal holidays, sick time and other forms of sanctioned employee leave. Except as otherwise noted in the paragraphs below, when I refer to an action taken by Darlene Wink between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, I have checked the Ceridian records and confirmed that Darlene Wink reported no employee off-time on that day.

F. FROM HER DESK IN THE MILWAUKEE COUNTY EXECUTIVE'S OFFICE, MS. WINK WORKED TO ORGANIZE AN EVENT SHE STYLED AS "HAPPY BIRTHDAY SCOTT," A FUNDRAISER COMMEMORATING SCOTT WALKER'S GUBERNATORIAL CANDIDACY AND HIS FORTY-SECOND BIRTHDAY

In September 2009, the Friends of Scott Walker and the Republican Party of Milwaukee County were planning a November 6, 2009 fundraiser intended to honor Scott Walker's 42nd birthday and the "one year out" point in time from the November 2, 2010 gubernatorial election.

Ms. Wink used her county computer (at least in part) to plan this fundraiser event. Ms. Wink also used a personal laptop which she brought to work and which was equipped with a USB device allowing her to connect to the Internet.

On May 14, 2010, the John Doe Judge issued a search warrant for the Milwaukee County computer used by Darlene Wink in the County Executive's Office. That computer was examined by Mr. James Krueger, a certified EnCase forensic computer examiner and the Information Technology Manager for the Milwaukee County District Attorney's Office. In the course of his examination of the county computer, Krueger first identified the fact that Wink used one Internet e-mail account, rpmcvp@yahoo.com. Subsequently, Krueger discovered the use of an account styled darlenewink@yahoo.com. On July 1, 2010, following Preservation Letter requests¹ dated May 15, 2010 and May 21, 2010, the John Doe Judge issued a Search Warrant for the Internet e-mail accounts of rpmcvp@yahoo.com and darlenewink@yahoo.com.²

Krueger also discovered certain Internet chat sessions on the county hard drive. Figure 1 is one such chat session with Joe Fadness. Joe Fadness was the Operations Manager for the campaign committee known as the Friends of Scott Walker.

Besides being the Operations Manager for the Friends of Scott Walker, Joe Fadness stated he served with Darlene Wink in the County Executive's Office as an Intern from 2003 to 2005. Fadness Doe Testimony pages 24-25.

Figure 1 is a partial segment of the chat session. It is dated Wednesday, September 16, 2009, a workday for Ms. Wink. The time listed within the chat is Greenwich Mean Time (GMT). Greenwich Mean Time is five hours ahead of Central Daylight Time (CDT). Consequently, the chat session shown in Figure 1 took place between 10:51 a.m. and 10:55 a.m. CDT on September 16, 2009.

² As developed in other parts of this John Doe investigation, Ms. Wink used a personal laptop computer while she worked in the County Executive Offices. That an e-mail was recovered from the account of rpmcvp@yahoo.com or darlenewink@yahoo.com is not necessarily evidence that Ms. Wink used her county computer to send or receive that e-mail.

Joseph_fadness (3:51:25 PM GMT): FYI - Serb Hall is busy on the night we discussed joseph_fadness (3:51:26 PM GMT): I call this morning joseph_fadness (3:51:29 PM GMT): *called darlenewlnk (3:53:28 PM GMT): OK - thanks - then it looks like we are back to Klemmers - we at least have it reserved - they are located a block and half away from the freeway - I checked that.
Joseph_fadness (3:53:58 PM GMT): ok joseph_fadness (3:54:24 PM GMT): My fear is that it is too far south west for anyone from surrounding northern counties to join us joseph_fadness (3:54:28 PM GMT): We will have a big crowd joseph_fadness (3:54:42 PM GMT): but I have not alternative suggestions at the moment.
joseph_fadness (3:55:07 PM GMT): no worse than serb hall in term of being south I guess - just a few miles to the west

Pursuant to John Doe subpoena, the telecommunications carrier Sprint produced records pertaining to a phone possessed by Darlene Wink. These records indicate that this chat (Figure 1) was preceded by a phone call made by Wink to Joe Fadness at (414) 507-9577 at 10:19 a.m. on September 16, 2009. The call lasted about ninety seconds. Wink placed a second call to Fadness, the campaign Operations Manager, at 4:49 p.m. that same day. This call also lasted about a minute and one-half.

In his John Doe testimony, while Mr. Fadness stated he did not remember this precise chat conversation (Figure 1), Fadness confirmed that this was an apparent transcript of a chat between himself and Darlene Wink. Fadness Doe Transcript page 75. Of the fundraising events he arranged with Ms. Wink, Mr. Fadness had trouble recollecting which event and venue that this chat concerned. Fadness testified (at Doe Transcript page 75 – 76):

22 A. I know we've had events there, I don't know what 23 this particular event is or was.
24 Q. Okay. Do you recall any events that were -- you
25 were working on together with Ms. Wink in the fall
1 of 2009 that would have been held in Serb Hall or 2 Klemmer's?
3 A. This is September, Mr. Walker's birthday is in 4 November, and of course we have Christmas in 5 December, so I'm not sure. Perhaps it was one of 6 those events.

Based upon a review of e-mails recovered from rpmcvp@yahoo.com, during Darlene Wink's workday on Monday September 21, 2009, at 1:57 p.m., Ms. Wink sent the following e-mail to Joe Fadness. See Figure 2. Sprint cell phone records indicate that this e-mail was preceded by a twelve minute phone call initiated by Wink to Fadness at 12:48 p.m.

Fadness sent his own version of the invitation late in the evening of September 24, 2009. See Figure 4.

On Friday September 25, 2009, at 9:23 a.m., while she was at work, Wink replied to Fadness and she noted that Fadness has changed her donor categories. Compare Figure 3 (Wink's invitation listing Silver at $250, Gold at $500, and Platinum at $1,000) to Figure 4 (Fadness' invitation listing Silver at $100, Gold at $250, and Platinum at $500).

Wink pointed out to Walker Operations Manager Joe Fadness that she already had donors at the "Platinum level" and she tells Fadness that they needed to find another precious metal category. See Figure 5.

Wink also pointed out that they have no confirmation that James T. Harris will serve as the Master of Ceremonies. See Figure 5.³ Ms. Wink notes that a separate return card will also be needed, if they use the invitation form specified by Fadness.

Joe - We have several individuals who have already contributed $1,000 for event - so we are going to have a category for them - I see you changed Platinum to $500 - but I think that should be $1,000 - we need to think of another precious metal category.

Also, we can do the flyer this way - but we have no confirmation that James t. Harris will be there and also - we will have to do a seperate card - we used to put everything on one flyer.

That following Wednesday, on September 30, 2009, at 9:06 a.m. CDT while Darlene Wink was at work, Fadness initiated a live chat session and continued the discussion concerning the "Happy Birthday Scott" fundraiser. See Figure 6.

In this chat, the Walker Operations Manager (Fadness) promised to send along an updated invitation. There was also a discussion about securing the services of Emcee James T. Harris, and Darlene Wink offered to reach out to him, but she warns Fadness that - because she is "swamped" - she wouldn't be able to do so until lunch or after work. See Figure 6. Wink advised Fadness that she did an "insert card" with a new precious metal category – copper. The chat ended at 9:37 a.m., with the bulk of the conversation occurring between 9:23 a.m. and 9:37 a.m. CDT.

The Figures on this page and the next (Figure 9 to Figure 15) represent Ms. Wink's continuing work on the Happy Birthday event, especially as it relates to developing materials intended to solicit contributions, viz., fundraiser invitations and response forms. These e-mails were recovered from the rpmcvp@yahoo.com e-mail account.

The RPMC has asked Vicky McKenna last week to be the Emcee at our event on November 6, 2009 to celebrate Scott Walker's 42nd Birthday - she said she would get back to David Kasrt, Chair for RPMC and has not - I wondered if you could ask her.

I have attached a flyer for the event.

Ms. Wink continued to work on the Happy Birthday fundraiser on Tuesday October 6, 2009. As reflected in Figure 18, Ms. Wink made efforts to arrange for Vicki McKenna to serve as Emcee. The flyer that she attached to this e-mail reflects the changed student price of $20. See Figure 19.

At 11:17 a.m. on that same workday, Tuesday October 6, 2009, Ms. Wink sent the campaign (in the person of Joe Fadness) the revision to the invitation (with lowered student price).⁷ She also included an RSVP form which allowed donors to specify the amount they were contributing to the fundraiser. On Monday October 19, 2009, at 11:06 a.m., the Walker Campaign Operations Manager, Joe Fadness, sent an e-mail to Darlene Wink - who was then present in the Milwaukee County courthouse for Jury Duty - for the purpose of requesting a fundraiser contribution. Fadness forwarded an e-mail from an executive at the Brookdale Senior Living Center, Inc. The executive had sent an e-mail to the Walker campaign web site, scottwalker.org.⁹ The e-mail from the executive stated:

I am interested in learning more about the opportunity to host this event and help Scott Walker raise funds for his gubernatorial campaign. Feel free to call my cell phone (the number is listed below). Thanks.

About twenty-five minutes later, at 11:31 a.m., Wink forwarded the e-mail she had received from the campaign to Rose Ann Dieck. Writing that she was then in "Jury Duty," Wink asked Dieck to follow through on this fundraising information from the campaign. See Figure 23.¹⁰

On Tuesday October 20, 2009, at 9:59 a.m. during a regular workday for Darlene Wink, Fadness again forwarded an e-mail to Darlene Wink for the purpose of collecting a fundraising contribution. At about this point in time, it was learned that Sarah Palin would visit Milwaukee on the day of the scheduled Happy Birthday fundraiser.

Consequently, on Monday October 20, 2009, at 10:07 a.m., Wink wrote the Republican Party of Wisconsin (RPW) chairperson Reince Priebus (with a copy to Joe Fadness) seeking Priebus' help in inviting Sarah Palin to attend the "Happy Birthday" fundraiser during her visit to Milwaukee. See Figure 25.

Reince:

I was wondering if you would be able to help the RPMC out in getting Sarah Palin to stop into our event which is being held on the same evening as her program with the Wisconsin Right to Life. Attached is flyer for event.

We are already losing people to that event from our event - and there is no time like the present to be able to let people know that she will also be at the RPMC event on the 6th of November.

With copies to Joe Fadness and others, the RPW chairman replied to the e-mail shown in Figure 25 at 10:12 a.m. stating that he was checking Palin's availability for party functions. Wink replied with her thanks at 10:22 a.m.

On 3:26 p.m. on the following workday, Wednesday October 21, 2009, Ms. Wink sent an e-mail to Joe Fadness and other persons helping to organize the "Happy Birthday Scott" event.¹² The attached information concerned volunteer activities for the fundraiser and it referenced a meeting to be held that night (October 21, 2009). The following day, Ms. Wink wrote to the Walker Campaign Operations Manager, Joe Fadness, expressing her frustration with the level of assistance that she and the Republican Party of Milwaukee County had received from the campaign. The text of the e-mail indicated that the "Happy Birthday" event may be cancelled and that Wink felt "abandoned" by the campaign. See Figure 26.

To: Joe Fadness
Date: Thursday, October 22, 2009 2:19:00 PM

Did you get my voice message that I left you last night after our meeting on November 6, 2009.

I will be honest - I feel abandoned by the campaign at this point - and it will cost the RPMC $1,000 to cancel the event and if we are to move forward we need help from all of you - I want this to be a success - this has always been the goal of both David and I and we put our necks on the line doing this event and I feel now that they are being chopped off.

I cannot do this event without any help - David and I were told that the campaign was lending us Tom - so far that has not been true - we were told that Brad Courtney was going to help us put together a Host list for us - that has not been happening. We were told that there would be email blasts about this event - I see it on the web page and Rose Ann said it was in the Walker Weekly - but that is all I have seen.

Joe - I have to explain this to the people that are asking me questions - and I have no answers. - I am trying to be positive and to work around all the hurdles - but if I do not get some assistance soon - I am going to expect that we will continue the event and it will be as successful as we can make it - but it won't be what any of us had hoped for.

I hope I hear something positive that will make me want to continue to do the best job possible to make this event successful for all involved - it is our money that is on the line - we need help!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

With the event in flux because of the possibility of the Palin appearance in Milwaukee, and without confirmation that Sarah Palin could or would attend the RPMC fundraiser, contingency plans started to develop.

On the following page, Figure 27 to Figure 29 reflect work done by Ms. Wink planning for the possibility that Sarah Palin would or would not be able to attend the Happy Birthday fundraiser event.

David:

Attached are the two documents I have prepared in case we have to cancel the November 6, 2009 event - please review them - and let me know if you have any suggestions or questions or see any mistakes as I prepared this quickly. I thought we should have this prepared just in case - Herb will need to send this out as soon as decision had been made.

I am also going to prepare another flyer saying that Sarah Palin will be joining us - just in case we are that lucky - but I think that we have to make a decision soon so that everyone can move on to the next event and we can only hope that Vicki McKenna will be able to make the next event date scheduled.

I am just trying to think ahead and I know that you do not have a lot of time to do this - so I'm hoping this will be of help to you.

Trying to determine if Sarah Palin might yet attend the "Happy Birthday Scott" event, Wink e-mailed Reince Priebus on Wednesday October 28, 2009 at 3:52 p.m. during her workday. Mr. Priebus e-mailed in reply at 4:14 p.m. noting that

Ms. Palin was "five hours behind us" and stating that, if there was any chance Palin would attend, he would soon know. At 4:17 p.m., Ms. Wink responded thanking Mr. Priebus and saying that she had forgotten about the time difference (between Alaska and Wisconsin) that would be involved.

On Friday October 30, 2009, at 1:05 p.m., Darlene Wink sent to the Walker campaign - in the person of Joe Fadness - a notice that the "Happy Birthday Scott" event had been cancelled.¹³

G. AFTER CANCELLATION OF THE NOVEMBER FUNDRAISER, MS. WINK COMMENCED WORK ON A REPLACEMENT EVENT, A HOLIDAY GALA FEATURING CANDIDATE SCOTT WALKER

The November event having been cancelled, discussion turned to rescheduling the event. The event was proposed for December 7, 2009. The theme of the event was expected to change from "Happy Birthday Scott" to a "Holiday Gala." Writing to the president of the RPMC, David Karst, at 3:43 p.m. on November 16, 2009, a personal off day, Wink forwarded the first draft of a potential fundraiser flyer and the response form.¹⁴ See Figure 30 and Figure 31 (next page).

On the following day, Tuesday November 17, 2009 a workday, Wink exchanged e-mails throughout the morning concerning the decision to reschedule the Holiday Gala fundraiser. Moreover, Wink's phone records indicate she spoke with David Karst for more than a half-hour that morning. In an e-mail sent by Karst to Darlene Wink and other RPMC members at 11:48 a.m., Karst announced that RPMC members were in favor of a rescheduled event. Karst wrote:

I believe we need 9 to approve, I would be 10. [T]he event is approved[.] [T]he flyer will sent to [H]erb today to send out tonight. Those that are interested in assisting[.] please come to a meeting that will begin tomorrow at 5:45 at County headquarters. Thank you for your prompt approval and helping make this event a success!

Rose Ann Dieck wrote to Karst and Wink at 12:58 p.m. that day (November 17, 2009) asking about the flyer that Karst intended to publish that evening (described in the above quote) and about "robo-calls" proposed by one of the members. See Figure 32.

Are you referring to one of the flyers that Darlene has already done?

Darlene and I had talked about those whose emails we have would only receive an email. Others would get the paper invite.

What about Josh's suggestion about 5000 robo calls. Where are we getting these numbers from. I hope its not another list like Bob Spindell provided us with for the Charlie Plumb event.

In two e-mails Wink sent at 4:04 p.m. and 4:37 p.m. on Tuesday November 17, 2009 to Rose Ann Dieck, Wink worked on revisions to the "Holiday Gala" flyer.¹⁶ At 5:13 p.m., she e-mailed David Karst and Walker Campaign Operations Manager Joe Fadness, among others, alerting them to the fact that she would be taking her laptop computer home to work on the fundraiser materials. See Figure 33.

I will take lap-top home with me - I can make any changes tonight - just let me know what you need changed.

I made the changes that Rose Ann suggested.

I also have the attachment that should go with the email.

I did not include Vicki McKenna as I have not heard back from her - I can always change the flyer to reflect that once we know for sure - how about Rebecca Kleefisch is Vicki is not available?

Wink followed this e-mail (Figure 33) with a 5:25 p.m. e-mail telling Fadness to "make sure that when you put this on your web page . . . you use the link that Rose Ann sent to me for the individuals to reply to - so that the RPMC gets all requests."¹⁷ In his John Doe testimony, Fadness confirmed that this was a reference to the scottwalker.org web site. On Wednesday November 18, 2009 at 1:22 p.m. during her workday, Wink sent an e-mail to Joe Fadness asking whether Fadness or Tom Evenson will be attending the RPMC meeting concerning the "Holiday Gala." See Figure 34. In the text

At about the same time, Wink sent the invoice she received from Fadness to Tim Russell, the RPMC Treasurer. She also e-mailed David Karst to advise him of the bill and the number of people registered to attend the fundraiser. See Figure 44.

At 3:35 p.m. on Tuesday December 1, 2009, Ms. Wink forwarded via e-mail a draft of the Holiday Gala program to Rose Ann Dieck for her review. About forty minutes later, at 4:15 p.m., Ms. Dieck replied by e-mail identifying several errors. Ms. Wink made the corrections and sent a revised program to Dieck at 4:36 p.m. At 4:42 p.m., Ms. Wink e-mailed Rose Ann Dieck with multiple attachments relating to the fundraiser, denominated as "Volunteer Job Descriptions 2009.doc," "50-50 Raffle Ticket Sign.doc," "At Door Prices Sign.doc," "Host Table.doc," "Registration Table.doc," and "RPMC Merchandise Table.doc."

Just a couple of things about Monday:

#1 - Will you have interns that can help with us with the 50/50 Raffle

#2 - Is it possible for the campaign to do one more email blast today or tomorrow?

#3 - I know that the campaign should not have received any reservations - but can you have someone check My Scott Spot - just in case.

Also, just so you know - Josh Hoshington brought up that the campaign would not put the event on their Facebook page which reaches 5,000 people - I told David that I thought the reason for that was that those people are not all in this area of the state - but Josh was making a big deal about it at our Exec Board mtg, so can you give me the explanation so I can make sure people have a clear understanding why it was not done.

So far - we are up over 100 people - which is less then we had even with Palin in town - guess true blue Packer Fans are even more dedicated to the Pack that Palin supports are to Palin - ha! ha!

Thanks Joe.

Hi Darlene,

I am not sure that we have enough email credits to send another blast. We buy credits (each email is 1 credit) since our list is so large, and we are near the end of our allotment for the year. I will follow-up with you on this.

Yes - we will have interns to help with the raffle - and really, anything that you need (registration, etc). How many volunteers would you like us to bring?

Yes - we will check MyScottSpot today and get back to you with any additional RSVPs.

We have explained to Josh that we created TWO facebook events - in addition to the event that he created on behalf of the RPMC. I am not sure how much more we can do without buying Facebook ads (which we don't have the money for).

I hope this makes sense. Let me know if you have questions. Thank you!

Maureen said yes to Christmas music and she is bringing music to play while there is down time - also she got us 8 people to come - that is in the total that Rose Ann gave to you.

The weather is becoming icky out - I am praying that we have good weather on Monday night. I have not heard from Reince - I sent him an email asking if he would be there - did you hear from him?

Rose Ann just told me that she talked to Klemmer's and they are moving us upstairs to the big room - I don't think that is a good idea - they want us to be comfortable - but that is going to be 300 people less than what we have.

Also, Klemmer's will not let us in until 5:15 p.m. and we have an event that starts at 6:00 p.m. - there is a lot that needs to be done before that - Rose Ann said that if I wanted to call and talk with them I should - but I can't from work. Do you have their number - I would like to be in there at 4:00 p.m. so we can set up. Also, why not give us the room for 120 instead of 400? It's your call - I just think it will look bad.

Also, I spoke to Rose Ann she thought that we could use 4 interns - I know that we will need help setting up - and the last I heard from Klemmer's is that they did not want to leave us in the place until 5:15 p.m. - David was going to call them to see if that matter could be resolved and we can get in early.
